SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit any Federal, state, or local crime, and shall not possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall be prohibited from owning, using, or being in constructive possession of firearms, ammunition, or other destructive devices while on supervision and any time after the completion of the period of supervision unless granted relief by the Secretary of the Treasury. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the United States Probation Officer.

Further, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions of supervised release as recommended by the United States Sentencing Commission, and which have been approved by this Court. The defendant shall also comply with the following special condition(s):

1. The defendant shall participate in substance abuse testing, to include not more than 52 urinalysis tests and not more than 52 breathalyzer tests annually during the period of supervision. The defendant is to pay all or part of the costs of testing as determined by the United States Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall participate in a program for mental health treatment as deemed necessary by the United States Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, as determined by the United States Probation Officer.
3. The defendant shall submit her person, residence, place of employment, or vehicle, to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer, based on reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence in violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to the condition.
4. The defendant will provide the United States Probation Officer with any requested financial information and shall incur no new lines of credit without prior written approval of the United States Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall not enter into any financial agreements or arrangements without the prior approval of the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall not convert financial accounts/assets without the prior approval of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall disclose all assets held in her name solely or jointly or converted to another's name to the U.S. Probation Office.
6. All employment must be approved in advance by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer. She shall not be employed in or volunteer in a position with fiduciary responsibilities without prior approval from U.S. Probation.
7. The defendant shall abstain from the consumption of alcohol and shall not enter establishments where alcohol is the primary item of sale. This condition supersedes standard condition number 7 with respect to alcohol consumption only.
8. The defendant shall allow the probation officer, at any reasonable time, to make periodic unannounced examinations of her computer, hardware, and software, which may include the retrieval and copying of all data from her computer.
9. The defendant shall provide a complete record of all passwords, Internet service providers, and user identifications (both past and present) to the probation officer and shall not make any changes without the prior approval of the probation officer.
10. The defendant shall not possess or use any computer or other device with access to any on-line computer service without the prior approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private computer network. The defendant shall not have access to a modem during her term of supervision without the prior approval of the probation officer.
11. The defendant shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute or administer marijuana, or obtain or possess a medical marijuana card or prescription. This condition supersedes standard condition number 7 with respect to marijuana only.
12. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3664(d)(5), since the victim's losses have not been ascertainable by the date of sentencing, the court shall set a date for the final determination of the victim's losses, not to exceed 90 days after sentencing. If the victim subsequently discovers further losses, the victim shall have 60 days after discovery of those losses in which to petition the court for an amended restitution order.
